HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter confine himself to the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, hereto-fore considered the best in use.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]
EASTERN DATES TO JANUARY 13.

From Georgia—The Rampant Democracy Checkmated.
CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—A Tribune Atlanta special says that in the House, yesterday, an order from Governor Bullock, indorsed by Gen. Terry, was read, directing the clerk to declare a recess until Monday, in order that investigation might be made into the ineligibility of certain members taking seats. This order fell like a bomb shell on the Democratic side, they not expecting such decided action. The Republicans were delighted. General Terry issued an order appointing a board to enquire into the eligibility of Senators named in the order, with all necessary power to prosecute such examination. General Rumor and General Hayes compose the board, with Major Goodfellow as Judge Advocate. A list of members of the House, whose eligibility, also, will be investigated, and a number of Senators are reported on good authority. Bryant and others had arranged that as soon as the last name on the roll was called, to nominate a Speaker pro tem, rush the latter through, and arrest the Speaker of the House in case he opposed such action. This arrangement was completely upset by the action of the authorities.
A meeting of about 500 persons was held yesterday, to denounce the action of Governor Bullock and General Terry. Bryant was president of the meeting. There is great dissatisfaction among rebels over the matter. Bryant says he resigned his Post-office in order to serve the State, and that no matter what anybody charges, he intends rejoining his party, and doing what he can to purify it. He charges Bullock with corruption, and says he acted illegally in the organization of the Legislature by trying to serve such ends, being willing to jeopardize everything for the sake of securing his own election to the U. S. Senate. He says that if Bullock permits the organization of the General Assembly, it will promptly ratify the Fifteenth amendment, elect Anti Bullock Senators and fully comply with the requirements of the Reconstruction laws. The tenor of the dispatch from Atlanta, including one from General Terry, is that Bullock is trying his best to get elected to the Senate. The General telegraphed yesterday that there was sensational excitement, but says to-day that things seem comparatively quiet. He makes inquiries of the War Department as to what he may do in case of the Sheriff who is making a good deal of trouble. Sherman responds that he may be removed at Terry's discretion. Terry also telegraphed inquiring what might be done in cases where members of the Legislature were unseated. Sherman was at the Capitol this afternoon consulting with Senator Trumbull and other lawyers. This evening he telegraphed to Terry that persons receiving the next highest number of votes for seats should be sworn in, in accordance with the laws of Georgia. The President has instructed Terry to proceed with the utmost caution in the whole work of reorganization, but to use decisive measures if they become necessary. Bullock is nothing but a Provisional Governor, subject to removal by the Commanding General.

New York News.
NEW YORK, Jan. 13.—The Rev. Cook, whose elopement with Miss Johnson created such scandal, assaulted one of the editors of the World at his office this afternoon, in consequence of the publication of an article in Sunday's edition. He was arrested, and said that the girl was at the Everett House, which proved to be true. He has been taken home and pretends to be insane. While in the hands of the police last night Cook advanced the extraordinary theory that the press, in mottoing his elopement, was animated solely with a desire to attack the Christian religion, and particularly the Church of which he was a member. It was ascertained that Cook returned to this city yesterday, from his excursion, and sent Miss Johnson to her parents. He then went home and brandished a pistol and frightened his family. His friends induced him to give up the weapon before he did any injury. He then wandered down town until he came across a newspaper reporter, whom he proceeded at once to insinuate. The friends of Miss Johnson are satisfied that she has returned from her enforced tour as pure as she went away. Cook has published a piece in appeal in the Tribune this morning, to the end that the press may not paint him blacker than he is.
The authorities at the Brooklyn Navy Yard are now busily engaged in pushing to completion preparations for the Darien exploring expedition. The gunboat Nipsig, Commander Selfridge, commanding the expedition, is off the Battery ready for sea.
The French Red Republicans in this city held a meeting last night to discuss the murder of Noire by Prince Bonapate. There was a large attendance, and the proceedings were very exciting. It was finally decided to hold a public demonstration in a few days.
The January Reform Protective and Benevolent Association is the name of a new organization projected by Jacob Cohn and several other citizens desirous of effecting political reforms in this city. Meetings were had in different parts of the city last evening. Active steps were taken towards a completion of the organization. Benevolence and reform are the objects.
The annual election of the Union League Club was held last evening. Jackson S. Schultz was chosen President.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—One hundred and thirty gold brokers have compromised the suit brought by the Government against them for taxes levied on sales of gold, and the District Attorney has been empowered to settle them and similar cases.
Rev. Horace Cook has not been seen since yesterday. His family have removed from the parsonage.
NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—The case of Rowena Florence vs. Gen. Butler for the recovery of the Twiggs' swords came up in the Supreme Court to-day on a motion to attach the defendant for non-compliance with the order enjoining him to stand examination as a party before trial. The defence demurred that the case was before the United States Courts. The plaintiff's motion was granted, and the defendant ordered to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt.
It is supposed that the notorious Cook has been quietly conveyed to the Insane Asylum. His family have left the parsonage. Miss Johnson is quite ill. The principal characters in this scandal have disappeared.
A call has been issued by the officers of the National Association of Junior Base Ball players for a meeting on the eve of Friday, Jan. 28, at Tammany Hall, the object being to re-organize and elect permanent officers. All Junior clubs are invited to send two delegates each.
It is rumored that Gen Stewart Woodford, formerly Lieutenant Governor of this State, will take editorial charge of the Brooklyn Union.
Plymouth church voted, last night, to increase the salary of Henry Ward Beecher to $20,000. In the course of the discussion among the leading members the idea was thrown out that this increase was made in consideration of Beecher's advancing years and circumstances; that it is his intention, before long, to retire from the pulpit; although he hopes that next year the salary will be fixed at $25,000.

Washington News—The fund for Mrs. Stanton
WASHINGTON, Jan 14. The President to-day nominated T. G. Phelps for Collector of Customs at San Francisco.
NEW YORK Jan 14.—The amount subscribed to the Stanton relief fund in the city is about $50,000. Collector Grinnell's district contains the names of twenty three gentlemen who have given $1,000 each, and of several who subscribed $500 each. A. T. Stewart's list is not quite as heavy. In Boston, $16,000 have been raised, and in Philadelphia $20,000, making a total in the three cities of about $86,000. The remaining $14,000 will undoubtedly be made up in the west.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Postmasters of several cities held an adjourned meeting at the Postoffice Department yesterday, and resumed the expression of views relative to reforms and improvements in the service.
Minister Washburne informed an American traveler in France, that the Emperor was never stronger in power than now, therefore, he has sufficient force to suppress any disturbance.

Assassination in Alabama.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan 14.—A few nights ago, at Leighton, Alabama, a band of masked men rode to the door and called out Granville Pillow and Robert Pillow, and shot and killed both. The assassins escaped, leaving no clue.

Ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment.
DOVER, Del., Jan. 14.—The Senate to-day ratified the Fifteenth Amendment by a vote of 15 to 5.
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 14.—The Kansas Senate yesterday ratified the Fifteenth Amendment.

Iowa Senatorial Nominations
CHICAGO, Jan 15.—The Republican Caucus of the Iowa Legislature, last evening, nominated Judge Wright for U. S. Senator. The first formal ballot gave Wright 67; Allison, 41, and Merrill, 8. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor were inaugurated yesterday. The Democratic Caucus nominated T. B. Shott, of Keokuk, Senator for the long term.

Congressional.
The Senate yesterday confirmed Thomas Biddle, of Pennsylvania, Consul General to Havana, and Record Beardsley, of Indiana, Consul to Jerusalem.
In the House, the Committee on Foreign Affairs referred that portion of the President's message relative to the French Cable, to Fernando Wood, to prepare a report, he having obtained information on the subject while in Paris.
A special meeting of the House Judiciary Committee considered the Secretary of the Interior's report on the Mediterranean claim. Bingham was instructed to report that no patent shall be issued upon the land in controversy until the final disposition of the claim by Congress.

Alabama Legislature.
MONTGOMERY, Jan. 14.—The Legislature is engaged entirely on local bills.
Considerable indignation was expressed in the House over the introduction of a resolution authorizing the appointment of a clerk to assist in putting in legible and sensible shape bills for engrossment. The member introducing the resolution stated that the Governor had to often approve bills disgracefully spelled and without authority from grammar. The resolution was defeated.

Miscellaneous.
BOSTON, Jan. 14.—Judge Richardson has declined the Presidency of the Hartford and Erie Railroad.
AUGUSTA, Jan. 14.—A severe snow storm prevailed.
PITTSBURG, Jan. 14.—Col. W. Diehl, the oldest native of Pittsburg, died to-day.
Eleven striking telegraph operators signed the conditions of the company, and applied for situations.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.
PARIS, Jan 14.—The city is still agitated over the recent homicide. Troops are held in readiness at the barracks and the military schools. Rochefort was present at the sitting of the Corps Legislatif to-day. Monday has been appointed as the day for opening the discussion on the arraignment of Rochefort. It is rumored that the Government will withdraw its demand and propose a law providing that all political crimes and offences shall be tried by jury.

Funeral of Victor Noire.
PARIS, Jan. 13.—The funeral of Victor Noire occurred to-day. The Government expecting demonstrations, made extensive preparations to preserve order. Early in the morning people began to gather around the house where the remains were lying, coming from all parts of the city. Five thousand workmen from the Faubourgs passed up the Boulevards. Many carriages with ladies dressed in mourning joined the procession. In the afternoon deputations of workmen visited the remains. The streets were filled with vast throngs, and carriages containing noted persons were surrounded by the crowd and the occupants cheered. The weather was cold and a heavy rain was falling, but the manifestations continued to increase until between two and three o'clock, when more than 100,000 persons were assembled in the vicinity of the place where the remains were exposed. Rochefort's appearance called forth great demonstrations of enthusiasm. The remains were taken to Neuilly for interment, followed by a long procession. The crowd wanted to parade with the body through Paris, but Louis Noire, brother of the deceased, refused to consent. At the cemetery there were frequent shouts of Vive la Republic. The Marseillaise was sung by the people during the day. Rochefort was passing down Champs Elysees accompanied by a great crowd who were singing the Marseillaise, when they were stopped by a regiment of troops, and the crowd ordered to disperse. Rochefort claiming his right as a Deputy, passed into the Chambers, where he arrived pale and much excited. Champs Elysees was then cleared by troops. The battalions took a station near the Hall of Legislature. A body of five regiments were massed on the Boulevards. The crowd finally dispersed without offering resistance, but some arrests were made. His newspaper has been seized by the police.
In the Corps Legislatif, the committee to whom was referred the demand of the Procureur Imperial, pronounced in favor of the arraignment of Rochefort for umbrage against the Emperor by inciting violence and disorder.
The Journal Officiel publishes an official decree, ordering that Prince Murat be brought before the high court of justice to be tried on a charge of striking a magistrate some time ago.
The Minister of the Interior has issued a circular to Prefects of the Department, and declares that the policy of the Ministry has been in accordance with the measures of the Chamber and the country, but the Government will exact order. While guarding the interests of all, it will not tolerate disorder. The Ministry will be ready, however, to oppose any excess of power, from whatever side and whenever it may appear.
PARIS, Jan. 13—Midnight.—No conflict has taken place between the troops and the people. The city is tranquil.
VIENNA, Jan. 13.—A majority of the Austrian Cabinet advocate a closer union between all the States of the Empire. The minority would confine the Confederation to the large States, and urge liberal reforms. This division may soon lead to important changes in the constitution of the Ministry.
LONDON, Jan 13.—The famous Star and Garter Theater, in Richmond, was destroyed by fire last night, and the manager lost his life.
MADRID, Jan 13.—In the Cortes to-day Prim made a long speech explaining the cause of the present crisis, and the Republicans introduced resolutions expressing dissatisfaction with his conduct and government.
Within a few days one thousand men have sailed for Cuba.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The complaint against J. J. Davis, for obtaining goods by false pretenses, has been dismissed as being without foundation.
W. Brooks was arrested to-day for obtaining goods under false pretenses. Heydeman is the complaining witness.
The total number of deaths in this city during the week has been 56.
The complaint for libel, by officer Supple, against Edgar A. Howe, reporter of the Trabuco, has been dismissed from the Police Court, the matter having been amicably adjusted by the parties immediately concerned.
Mollie Trussel, who several years ago killed her paramour in Chicago, and who has recently been keeping a house of ill fame in San Francisco, was arrested yesterday, charged with insanity.
Another strike has occurred among laboring men, this time among workmen engaged at Wentworth & Co's Boot and Shoe factory, on Fell street. Four men remain in the factory, but some of the strikers threaten to go there and compel them by force to cease work.

Shipping.
Arrived—Brig North Star, from the Columbia river.
The steamer California, which left this morning for Victoria, has returned on account of a storm and northwest wind.

The real estate of the late Gov Allston, of South Carolina, consisting of five splendid rice plantations, and containing 4,108 acres, was recently sold at Georgetown, S. C., under a decree in equity, for $42,700. The plantations cost the deceased over $222,000.

There is a steam hammer at Danville, (Pa.) which cost $40,000, and which will crack a nut without breaking the kernel, or crush a solid cannon ball with a sixty-ton blow.

Sayings of the Unreconstructed.
Since the passage of the Georgia Reconstruction bill some of the old rebels have been showing their fangs. B. H. Hill, ex-Confederate General, and a man of much influence with his party, writes a long letter to the Augusta Chronicle, in which he says:
"What shall we do now? * * * Withdraw from Congress and pay nothing. * * * My humble opinion, therefore, is that our people should, despite this additional attempt of Congress to humiliate them, do what they have already done, and what the Roman Senate would have done in the days of their country—with quiet dignity and stolid indifference. Let it be our study hereforth to save as little as possible for Federal offices, and as much as possible for our own."
The Savannah Republican, in a long editorial written on receiving a special dispatch announcing the passage of the Georgia bill, treats the matter in the following style:
"The first idea that occurs in the contemplation of this extraordinary condition of affairs is that the people of Georgia have no hand or part in the matter. It is simply the work of an unconstitutional overruling control of power, by force of all its demands by the bayonets of the Federal soldiery. We are in no sense responsible for what this Legislature shall do or say. They are, as to the measure of Congress, the expositors, with the purpose and the opponents of its will. Let them do what they may, the people of Georgia will recognize no responsibility as [illegible] for the vote of such a body. They may adopt the Fifteenth Amendment, and a dozen others if they choose; they may run the State millions upon millions into debt—and they may, if they can extricate [illegible] and send such men as Bullock, Blodgett, Swayze, Jeff. Long, or the like to the Senate. It will all be the work of the [illegible] and will make the people of Georgia will [illegible] so long as they are compelled to [illegible] We here give notice to the class of ignorant and brutalized whites and blacks that are thus foisted by bayonets over the rights of the good noble people, to beware how they use their power. It will not always be thus. A retribution, if not swift, at least sure, will overtake all who dare avail themselves of the [illegible] to oppress an unoffending people. We wish them to understand that, whether backed by Federal bayonets or not, there is no escape from [illegible] duty. Let the [illegible] go on to the harm of the people of Georgia, and we tell them that it were better for them had a millstone been chained to their necks and they cast into the sea. We warn, but we do not threaten. We wish every man in Georgia who shall be willing to degrade himself by taking part in this war upon the people, to recollect that, sooner or later, he will be called to a strict account for every word uttered or act performed. The people will not stand everything, even though their cause should be backed by overwhelming force."

MONDAY MORNING JANUARY 17 1870

Repudiation as a Party Question

We are continually refreshed by the cool impudence of Democratic tactics Here comes now the Herald which for months and we might say years has been either an out and out or a quasi repudiationist and says

This question of repudiation is not yet a party question Members of both parties advocate it and therefore no one can speak but for himself on the subject If that don't make the gentlemen "turf we should like to see that specimen of legerdemain or clownish antic that could elicit a smile Why the whole host of Democratic newspapers and orators have these three or four years been telling the people that the Republican party was pledged to the payment of the "bond holder s swindling war debt ' that no relief from it could ever be expected except through the success of the Democracy, that the people were to be taxed even to their sweat and blood by the Republican party to pay the bondholders; and a thousand other things of similar impressively terrible import Pendleton's financial policy was repudiation, or payment in greenbacks which is partial repudiation The Oregon Democracy in convention endorsed Pendleton instructed its delegates to vote for him for the Presidential candidacy and thus put itself squarely upon that record, in its party representative capacity as in favor of repudiation Up to the time of the Mangen-Jones repudiation fiasco in Congress the other day, there was no Democratic voice in all the great West which was not for repudiation, either pure and simple or partial The Cincinnati Enquirer, which is greater even than the Herald, says the Democracy of the Northwest are still a unit on the issue of "entire and open repudiation of the debt, if it is not paid in legal tenders" So far as we have had any expression from the Democratic press of Oregon, up to the amusing flip-flap of the Herald of yesterday morning, the Democratic voice has been still for war on the line marked out by Pendleton. The Herald itself, a few mornings since declared that the young Democracy of the West would take no step backward

As a matter of fact, established by the record, the two great parties of the country have been divided on this question of repudiation, by lines as distinctly drawn as any that separate them on any question at issue. We doubt if the record of a national State Congressional or county convention of Republicans, held within the last two or three years, or since this question has been mooted, can be produced which does not declare in favor of the honest, faithful payment of the national debt. It is a prime plank in the Republican platform of the nation, which has been endorsed and reindorsed hundreds of times, in the most emphatic and unequivocal language, all over the land everywhere And even as to the details of individual position of the question, it seems to the Herald that the able editors papers or men of respectable standing in the Republican party who have given any uncertain sound on this issue.

The trouble is just now, with our neighbor, that the Democracy has gone upon the rocks and given indications of breaking up, on this issue of repudiation The swindlers' bribe has been offered to the people by the Democracy and the people have spurned it with loathing It is plain enough that Democracy must repudiate its repudiation heresy or be itself repudiated; hence this "no party question" bare assault of the Herald—a feat that, considering the awkwardness of the situation, would do credit to the agility of the chief of the Ravenswood acrobats The tumblers are now performing and "the band is still playing" We shall not be surprised if the audience that saw a dozen somersaults before next election proves what as difficult as this we have mentioned, and as ludicrous in repudiation attempted for politicians Meantime we beg to assure our neighbor of what all the world knows before, that the Republican party is planted squarely and unalterably on the proposition to maintain the national credit by a faithful payment of the national debt. If the Democracy chooses to "about face" and become honest, we shall hail the movement with entire satisfaction, as one of the most unequivocal tributes to the correctness and success of Republican policy.

Gov Ashley of Montana.

From the following letter it may seem that there is some possible mistake in the reports sent to Washington and thence circulated over the country, to the effect that Gov Ashley had deserted the Republican party and cast his mot in with the Democracy

VIRGINIA CITY, M T December 23, 1869

Editor Daily Oregonian, Portland, O F never under any circumstances, have a speech or letter published here, against the negro as held by Democratic papers

Yours truly, JAMES M ASHLEY

The Governor's message does contain the advice which he says he gave the Legislature Here is the passage, which we find in the message as printed in the Capital Times:

I congratulate you upon the fact, now conceded, that the National Constitution will soon be so amended as to conform to our new condition as a nation. The great privilege of the ballot will thus be secured by national authority to every citizen of the United States of mature years whether native or foreign born, white or black This welcome consummation secures the triumph in our government of the true Democratic idea In conferring the privilege of the ballot the equal rights of all men are recognized and the government becomes the agent of the citizen instead of his master Every citizen thus enfranchised has placed in his hands the most formidable weapon of protection and defence known to a Republican government Experience teaches us that the ballot gives every man dignity and power and all know that its proper use will secure him justice and a government administered in the interest of civilization and peace It becomes our duty to conform our laws to the National Constitution I therefore recommend that our election law, which prescribes the qualification of electors be amended by copying the exact words of the 15th amendment Whatever differences there may be as to its true interpretation it will eventually be judicially determined and thus all existing questions touching the qualification of citizen electors in States and Territories will practically pass from the political arena.

This is what may be called 'going the entire swine.' The contest going on between the Governor and the Legislative Council constitutes one of the most complete muddles now on exhibition in political circles The organic act authorizes the Governor to appoint by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council, certain officers of the Territory In the exercise of this power of appointment the Governor sent to the Council the names of C O Trask for Auditor and Sol Starr for Treasurer On December 22d the Council returned a communication stating that it respectfully refused to advise and consent to the appointment of these gentlemen, and further refused to advise and consent to the appointment of certain other gentlemen naming them but that the Governor is informed that the Council is ready to advise and consent to the appointment of W H. Rodgers, W G Barkley and W L Irvine to the offices respectively of Territorial Auditor Territorial Treasurer and Territorial Superintendent of Public Instruction In reply to this modest suggestion of the Democratic Council the Governor sent a note referring to the provisions of the organic act and respectfully declining to adopt the suggestion Thus the matter stands As fast as the Governor nominates the Council formally refuses to 'advise and consent' and then the Governor sends in a new batch of names as though nothing had transpired to disturb the tranquility of the political atmosphere of the Mountain Territory

Editorial Notes

Quite a number of the interior Republican newspapers of California have already named Gen J F Miller of San Francisco as next candidate for Governor Miller was probably taught in his youth that it is the early bird which catches the worm

The Northwest Coast, a lecture delivered in Lincoln Hall Washington City, Nov 15th, by invitation of the Young Mens Christian Association, by Hon S Garfielde Delegate from Washington Territory, printed in pamphlet form has been sent us It contains much information as to the resources, productions manufactures and undeveloped wealth of the northern Pacific coast, and having been published for general circulation at the east, it will serve, no doubt, an excellent purpose in directing attention this way

The San Franciscans are consoling themselves that though their city is frequently visited by fearful quakings, other parts of the world are not exempt One of the newspapers says: "This year, it would seem as if it was thundering everywhere. In the western part of the Union haze and there it has been asserted that small shocks have occurred In Europe, quite severe shocks have been felt In various parts of Germany it is said, chimneys have been thrown down and plastering cracked and this is the interior of the continent At Naples, observers say that Vesuvius is big with menace, and it would seem that other volcanoes are beginning to rouse themselves after their long rest And Africa is also joining in the dance—Algeria having been severely visited " There is nothing like having companionship in misery.

Senator Corbett's bill providing for the creation of a Department of Indian Affairs has the following features according to the correspondent of the Oregon State Journal It provides that there shall be established at the seat of Government a Department of Indian Affairs, the object of which shall be, under the control of the President, to execute the laws of the United States touching the relations of the Government with the Indians and the Indian tribes under its jurisdiction, and to preserve peace with the Indians by promoting their civilization and improving their condition. It also provides for the appointment by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who shall be the Chief Executive officer of said Department, and who shall hold his office for a period of four years, and receive a salary of $5,000 per annum It transfers the clerks in the Interior Department who have charge of Indian affairs to the control of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, and gives him control of the Indians exclusively in time of peace If the Indians make war on the whites, the President can issue a proclamation setting forth the fact, and thereafter they are under the War Department, until a similar proclamation announces that they have returned to peace, when upon the Department again assumes control.

IDAHO

PARTICULARS OF THE LATE FIRE—BEST BUSINESS BLOCKS DESTROYED—LIST OF THE PRINCIPAL LOSSES.

[From the Chronicle, Jan 8]

On Thursday night about 20 minutes past ten o'clock (by our time,) our ears were startled by the well known but death like sound of Fire! Fire!! Fire!!! A light of unpretentious but wicked meaning met our gaze and springing in the street we soon found the Capital block of the Capital of Idaho Territory in flames When we first reached the scene we found the building of Lamkin Bros and that occupied by Chas Child, a mass of flames We can only say here that the entire block from Wollstein & Co's to D Falk Bro's was soon a sheet of flame and presented an appalling aspect From the time the fire alarm was given till all danger was over the time must have been between two and three hours Every citizen did his duty well and but for this our whole town would be in ashes The fire originated somewhere near the establishment of Chas Child The exact locality is not known but every one who is acquainted with the circumstances knows it was the work of an incendiary At near as we can get at the losses sustained, we find the following

Lamkin Bros building and stock	$18 000
Opera House	5 500
John Craft building and stock	5 000
Miel Salson (at post office building) clothes stock of confectionary and toys	700
Cagwin (auctioneer)	200
Fred Delagel (baker)	5 000
Capital Restaurant (Harry Gordon) building and Fixtures	7 000
Lessee, store and building	2 500
Gilchrist and Gleason, from $8,000 to	4 000
Benifer (Restaurant)	800
J E Willkin butcher shop	500
H Gimbal, Saloon	550
Speigle's loss not known

We must then enumerate the losses of the persons who owned the buildings which will amount to between $16,000 and $25 000 We believe the total loss will f t up $ 5 000 and if we were to count the buildings pulled down on Idaho street we think it would foot up at least $5 000 Among the many incidents to be enumerated we find the following names worthy of mention H H & Ben Lamkin and Pete Michaelson of the Post office building left all their goods to go to the dogs and tried to save the United States Mails in which they succeeded This was a noble example indeed and one which few men would imitate While we must praise the example set by these men we must say the United States mails might have gone to purgatory we would have saved our property and Uncle Sam's mail fixtures might have gone to a colder region The Lamkin Bros are the heaviest losers and all by turning their attention to public property The force pumps of C Jacobs & Co Geo H Twitchells and Joe Levinsons did effect ve service and the cistern of Capt Griffin at the Overland Hote. showed our citizens what a stitch in time would do We believe the fire was the work of an incendiary and was started for the purpose of plunder Many things that were saved from the fire found their way to unknown quarters and have not been heard of since We understand our Sheriff last night arrested a no Chinamen having found stolen goods in their possession

THE JUDICIAL APPOINTMENTS —The Alta of the 29 h ult has the following from its Washington correspondent

In th s connection it may be as well to mention that at one time the nomination of Judge Deady as your Circuit Judge was determ ned up on in Cabinet meeting but as is usually the case at such times the telegraph was working between here and San Francisco, and Judge Hoffman stood upon his dignity (at least t is as reported here), at having Judge Deady promoted over his head, and so the slate was changed and Judge Sawyer was nominated Had the wires been blown as frequently the case Judge Deady would have been appointed

The Situation in Georgia.

ATLANTA Jan 15 —Hon J H Caldwell Chairman of the Southern division of the National Republican Committee has written a letter to the Hon J A Bingham giving an account of causes of difficulty of organizing the Georgia Legislature He says the question of holding the Republican party is not political and does not involve the rights of any class of persons as such but does involve the conscience of all men who work for the interests of the State against a corrupt faction composed of a few individuals seeking to intrench themselves in a position which will enable them to deplete the treasury and ruin the credit of the State He pronounces Attorney General Parrow's opinion as procured at the instance of Governor Bullock, without authority, and says it was remonstrated against by the leading Republican members. The appointment by the Governor of one of his employees on the State road, Harris, to organize the House was a gross and arbitrary step and in violation of the act of Congress

A Stand off on the Ratification Question

WASHINGTON, Jan 15 —A special says the ratification of the 15th amendment by Ohio is the subject of much congratulation among the Republicans To all objections of the Democrats that it is illegal, they simply reply if New York can repeal one way, Ohio can offset by her repeal in another way, that the case virtually stands as it did before New York attempted the repeal of the ratification

What the Hon. W T Ballou says about the King of Pain

SAN FRANCISCO Dec 1869

Dr J J McBride—Having suffered with sciatic rheumatism for two years I was induced to use your King of Pain I take pleasure in recommending it to those afflicted with it especially as I know of several cases of a radical cure that have been effected by using it

W T. BALLOU, of Elko Nevada

Card from Harbor Master

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec 2, 1869

To Dr McBride—This is to certify that I have been troubled with neuralgia for my right arm and hand for the past three months, and all tough I have had medical advice and tried a number of remedies none has relieved me until I tried Dr McBride's King of Pain which has done me more good than all the other remedies I have tried JAMES S HOUSEMAN

THE GREAT KING OF PAIN.

DR. J. J. M'BRIDE,

TREATS YOUR DISEASE WITHOUT ASKING ANY QUESTIONS!

A CARD.

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 16 1869

DR McBRIDE—My Dear Sir For the last six or seven years I have been afflicted with rheumatism in my knees and was embracing all the joints of ankle and toes Those pains have come upon me periodically every year about this season of the year My knees and ankles, and toe joints, and my wrists and finger joints would swell and leave me in the most agonizing pain known only to those who have suffered from this dread malady These pains would continue for a period of from three to four months every year and they have been a regular recurring annual visitors I have been accustomed to apply for relief to the best citizens of San Francisco and have not failed to use all the popular remedies known to the public I would sometimes receive temporary relief after long continued applications but it would never fail to return in a few days with increased severity

About two weeks ago, while my pains were upon me, I saw you at the corner of one of our streets, and heard what you said about your King of Pain I confess that I listened to you with deep distrust indeed, I may say that I did not believe your statements still thought if it only a dollar and I'll patronize the humbug one dollar s worth I bought a bottle and tried it first on my knee, which was fearfully swollen and from which I suffered very severely The second night I tried it again and my dear Doctor you can judge of my astonishment and delight altogether when I found on rising the second morning that my pains were entirely gone and the swelling entirely disappeared My knee joints were as supple as when I was young I actually danced with delight, much to the amusement of my friends, who had been in the habit of regarding me as a decrepid old rheumatic It has now been two weeks, and I have not felt the least symptom of return I believe I am cured, and I feel so grateful to you that I offer you this statement to be used by you in whatever way you may think proper and I feel it a duty to those others similarly afflicted know where they can find relief I am yours, very truly RAPHAEL LOCKAYER.

State of California city and county of San Francisco On this 16th day of October 1869 personally appeared before me a Justice of the Peace in and for the city and county of San Francisco aforesaid Raphael Lockayer known to me to be the person who signed the foregoing letter, and who being by me duly sworn, deposes and says the contents thereof are true

T W TATTAKERRO Justice of the Peace

TO THE PUBLIC

Grateful for the eminent services of Dr J J McBride I cheerfully make a statement of the following facts For twelve months I had suffered from prostration of my nervous system resulting in partial paralysis and almost total loss of sight A score of physicians had abandoned my case as hopelessly incurable I had often heard my depressed mood by these afflictions In the agonies of my neuralgic pain I sought the great King of Pain Under the below influences, in one-half hour I had obtained more relief and more than I had known for long weary months My sight was restored I retained that relief point, although I had now only to go to Dr J J McBride s office an hour Before leaving him I had regained the use of my almost paralyzed arm and a mighty strength had returned while all those aches and pains had permanent compose were done painted and gone. It is now ten days at which time I have not had the slightest symptom of return I have experienced perfectly restored my whole physical system contracted and in no doubtful health

My residence is in Reading Street at No 6 Cambridge street, in this city where I will willingly answer in person for the truth of the foregoing to any one desiring it

CITY.

RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.—The Government Engineer in his report for the year 1869, states that the work of dredging Swan Island Bar, in the Willamette river, below Portland, has been prosecuted the past year. The total length of the channel excavated since the commencement of the work in 1867, is 5,200 feet; the depth is about 15 feet at low water. The following is a list of allotments of money, and appropriations asked for the next fiscal year:

Swan Island Bar	$25,000 00
Re-opening the channel at the mouth of the Willamette river	5,000 00
	$31,000 00

Which he believes will complete the work on the Swan Island Bar, and keep open the channel at the mouth of the river up to that date.

Amount of appropriation and allotments for improvement of the Willamette river	$79,500 00
Balance available July 1, 1869	20,923 74
Amount required to be appropriated	$1,000 00
Which can be profitably expended during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1871.

CONSTRUCTION.—In well regulated cities in the United States, the city authorities usually have, and exercise the power of controlling the plan of buildings erected for public uses, such as churches, city or public halls, etc., so far as to see that they are made safe, and that in case of fire, ample facilities are provided for the egress of large assembled people without great danger to life and limb. This is a wise precautionary measure, which by our own city might be the means of preventing serious consequences in the future. Take the door of the new Lutheran church, for instance, in course of building, is comparatively narrow, and should the edifice catch fire when it is filled with people, the rush would make a great deal of headway before the entire audience could make their exit. Other public buildings in the city are liable to the same objection. We make these suggestions now that the people of Portland may remember that precautions and action taken in this respect may be of value in time, to bring about the desired state of affairs.

EXCURSION GOING EAST.—Those who are intending to go to the Atlantic States by railroad, and are in search of ascertaining the best route to travel, will doubtless find the Rock Island & Chicago route not only the quickest, but the most desirable line on which to travel. The road of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Company runs directly through the finest parts of the great and growing States of Iowa and Illinois. Their trains connect with the Union Pacific road at Omaha and carry passengers through without change, affording all the facilities for the enjoyment of the trip possible. Those having traveled over this road pronounce it superior in point of accommodations to any in the United States. Only the latest and most approved styles of sleeping cars are used on the road, and everything provided for the comfort and pleasure of travelers. Persons going East should secure tickets at San Francisco or Sacramento via this route.

BURGLARY.—Night before last, about half past 12 o'clock, the store of Messrs. Kast & Cahalin, First street, was broken into, and a number of boots stolen. The thief broke the glass in the show window, and made his entrance through it. Early yesterday morning, officer Lee was on the track of the thieves, and discovered where a pair of the stolen shoes had been offered for sale on Yamhill street. The shoes were offered, said the party, for the reason that if she "didn't buy them, he would throw them into the river." The police, however, found the shoes, and a pair of boots which had been stolen at the same time, from a man formerly in the employ of Mr. Keating, was arrested, he being identified as the party who offered the shoes for sale. We understand he will have an examination to-day.

ARRIVALS.—The barks L. Heaton and Whistler and schooners Alaska and Champion were at Astoria when the boat left for this place last Saturday morning. The bar was said to be quite smooth and the weather stormy.

THE Live Yankee is still in port here, though she is going nearly complete, she will sail for Victoria this week.

THE big North Star arrived at San Francisco on Saturday.

THE steamship California, hereafter to run on the route between Portland and Victoria, left San Francisco on the 15th for the latter place, but was obliged to turn back on account of storms.

THE Oregon is taking in a fair cargo and will sail for San Francisco to-morrow.

NEW BUSINESS.—Mr. Thompson, boat builder, of this city, is engaged in the construction of a boat to be used in the fisheries down the Columbia. He has one already completed which is a creditable piece of workmanship and others equally good in progress. The boat now on the Columbia during the last season was quite successful in considering the circumstances, and the general dullness of trade on this coast. The total amount of salmon shipped during the year was 3,937 barrels; 3,241 bf barrels; and 5,623 cans. This quantity, judging from the preparations now going on, and the arrangements being made, will be much increased during the coming spring, and the fall of the present year.

DISTURBANCE.—The vicinity of the corner of Front and Second Streets was the scene of some violent and disorderly proceedings on Saturday night, again. Some of the crowd which always be found about the saloons in that neighborhood, became involved in a drunken row, and finally ended up in a regular street fight. We were informed that some ten or a dozen men engaged in the melee, and that some of them received rather badly bruised. From the frequency of occurrences in that locality, we would think that it might be good policy for our city authorities to put an additional policeman on that beat, as one man would have to be possessed of considerable courage and other facilities to cope with the lot of them.

DEATH BY FATAL ACCIDENT.—In the afternoon of yesterday a very sad and fatal accident occurred in the family of Mr. Tracy, who resides in the northern part of the city, and is in the employ of the Portland Gas Company. A vessel filled with hot water had been left standing on the floor by a member of the family who desired to use it for scrubbing the floor. At a moment when no one else was near, a little girl, daughter of Mr. Tracy, fell into the vessel and the hot water was so badly scalded that she died in a few hours. Her sufferings from the time of the accident until death released her, were of a most distressing and painful character.

I. O. O. F.—Marvin Grove of this order was instituted in this city yesterday by A. Jubits, D. D. G. M., and the following were duly installed officers for the present term: L. F. A. Shaw, N. G.; Wm. A. Buchanan, V. G.; A. H. Kallenberg, Sec.; A. J. Marshal, Treas.; W. Whitwell, Rep. to G. L.; Chapman, R. H. B. N. A.; A. M. Lord, L. H. B. N. A.; E. H. Stolte, R. H. B. V. A.; Wade, L. H. B. V. A.; W. H. Otter, C. The second organization of the kind established in Oregon, Concordia Grove having been instituted in this city several months ago.

FINANCES.—The Report of E. D. Backenstos, City Treasurer, for the quarter ending 31st December, shows the state of the General Fund to be as follows: Balance on hand as per last report, $1,730 30; amount collected on delinquent list, $1,194 30; amount collected for dog licenses, $4; amount collected for business licenses, $1,000; amount received from City Recorder for fines and fees, $317 80; total, $12,971 61; warrants paid and returned, $10,942 93, balance in treasury Jan. 1, 1870, $2,028 68.

EXCURSION.—The excursion to Astoria by the Ajax Bell to morrow, will certainly be very pleasant. A large number of persons are going from this city, and the tug boat Astoria with her band of "Clatsoppers" and a band of musicians on board, will meet them at Woody Island, and return with them to Astoria. To morrow night they will have a grand ball, and the Portland folks will return home on Wednesday. All will have a genuine good time.

TREASURER.—The Enterprise, Oregon City, of Saturday last, says: "On last Thursday the treasurer of the Oregon Central Railroad had a large number of ties, and other timbers necessary for constructing the road. And in addition to this he had a large lot of what boatmen call "grub," upon which some of the knowing ones in town are predicting that a new and fine steamer is to be put on the upper Willamette.

FLOUR.—Two thousand quarter sacks of flour were brought down from Oregon City by the boats on Saturday last.

COURTS.—The United States Circuit Court and District Courts for Oregon Hon. M. P. Deady, Judge, will convene this morning at ten o'clock. The former met on Saturday but transacted no further business than order an adjournment until to day, when it is expected that some of the cases on the docket will be disposed of.

OREGON PATENTS.—We see in the last number of the Mining and Scientific Press of San Francisco, that our fellow townsman, John W. Sutton has received a patent for the Dynamometer invented by him, and described in the Oregonian some months ago. Adam Brown, of Bridgeport, has also received letters patent for an animal trap.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—We learn that our well known and highly respected citizen, Capt. J. H. Couch, is lying dangerously ill of pneumonia, at his residence in this city. At a late hour last evening serious doubts of his recovery were entertained.

SNOW.—Several slight snow falls occurred at intervals during the day yesterday, but none remained long enough to mantle the earth.

J. F. ROBERTS.—An important message is at the telegraph office for this person.

OREGON

The Register is about to issue a city directory of Albany.

Prof. De Bussche is about open a German school in Jacksonville.

At the latest accounts there was ten inches of snow in Baker county.

A Mr. Belden, of Albany, is about to start a broom manufactory at that place.

D. W. Prentice has been elected Musical Director of the Salem Musical Union.

Marion Square, Salem, is to be improved at a cost of one hundred and thirty five dollars.

The Mercury says Michael Hale was accidentally shot in the leg, on the 11th, by James Irwin, with whom he was hunting.

A correspondent at Canyon City says: Snow is very scarce between here and Burnt river and miners apprehend a dry season ahead.

The people of the vicinity of Lebanon, Linn county, are talking of building a bridge across the south branch of the Santiam.

A little two-year old daughter of a Mr. Bennett, of Illinois river, Josephine county, recently got lost in the woods, wandered six miles away, and was found two days afterward, dead.

Mr. Hart, engineer of the McMinnville canal, estimates the cost of a ditch from the Santiam to Albany of the same dimensions as the Yamhill canal, at about $27,000. The ditch will require six locks.

The grain crops of French Prairie are represented as appearing fine and thrifty. The breadth of ground sown to fall wheat is large and much spring grain will be sown, notwithstanding present low prices.

From the Statesman of Saturday: Considerable interest is manifested in a series of meetings at the Methodist Church.... The steamer Active has made a trip to Jefferson, bringing down 77 tons of flour and a lot of bacon.

Says the Jacksonville Sentinel: "A collection was taken up a few days since for the relief of a poor widow, living in town, who, in addition to the loss of her husband a few weeks ago, has now five children down sick with the scarlet fever."

We learn from the Mercury that at the January term of the County Court for Benton county, R. A. Bonsell was appointed Justice of the Peace for Yaquina precinct, and A. Newton for Elk city precinct—both appointments to fill vacancies by resignations.

The Enterprise gives the list of officers—just elected—of Fountain Hose Co. No. 1, as follows: John Myers, President; W. H. Highfield, Treasurer; S. D. Pope, Secretary; John Schram, Foreman; John Reilly, 1st Assistant; David Smith, 2d Assistant.

From the Salem Press of Saturday: The river is nine feet above low water mark. John P. Logier was robbed at the Union Hotel of $75 coin.

The Woolen Mills will start up in February.

A petition for the abolition of the franking privilege is in circulation.

Mr. J. L. Parrish, in a correspondence to the Farmer, states that the number of pupils in attendance at the four district schools in Salem, at 357, at four private schools 128. These do not include any in attendance at the Wallamet University, at which there were 225 last term.

From the Albany Register: We are pleased to be enabled to inform our readers and the "rest of mankind," that the fifty thousand dollars required of this city, by Ben Holladay, to insure the building of the Oregon Central Railroad (East-Side) through the city of Albany, has been subscribed for, $26,000 in land and nearly $26,000 in money.

We learn from the Register that a meeting of citizens was held on the 10th to consider the Santiam ditch project. It was resolved that "it is expedient and the demand calls for the bringing in of said water." A committee was appointed to perfect articles of incorporation. The subscription was fixed at $40,000 in shares of $100 each.

The following are the officers of Blue Mountain Chapter No. 7, Royal Arch Masons: Francis Wallace, H. P.; J. Mullirick, E. King, E. M. Bamford, E. Scribe, John Lung, C. H., John A. Laycock, P. S., Isaac Williams, R. A. C.; G. B. Fearing, M. 3d V., Antone Hackney, M. 2d V.; D. G. Overholt, M. 1st V., John Long, Treas., C. G. Castle, Sec'y, George V. Owens, Guard.

At Jacksonville, during 1869, there were forty-four interments in the cemetery. Of the above number of deaths, says the Sentinel, 5 were from consumption, 5 from small-pox, 1 from pneumonia, 2 fatalities, 7 from diphtheria, 2 from croup, 1 from heart disease, 1 from paralysis, 1 from congestion of the liver, 3 from scarlet fever, 2 from typhoid fever, 1 accidentally killed, 1 from dropsy, and the rest from various diseases.

The Statesman says: The number of deeds recorded during the year were 587, the consideration averaging a little over $500 each. The highest valuation of any one transfer was $10,000, the consideration of the deed from Matheny & McCully to S. Coffin. The number of mortgages recorded during the same time is 82. The total amount of fees for recording deeds and mortgages was about $961. During the year there were 100 marriage licenses issued, and in the same time 11 divorces were granted, leaving the balance in favor of Hymen 89 couple.

A subscriber at Dayville, Oregon, (on the Canyon City road) complains that for a long time the OREGONIAN has not reached his post-office except at irregular intervals, the paper sometimes being delayed four to six weeks and then the back numbers coming all together. Within a few months several numbers have been missed totally. The writer is disposed to think the fault is with some postmaster on the way, as the Herald is received with much greater regularity. We will endeavor to have some inquiries made with a view to the correction of the irregularities complained of.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

[From the Victoria Colonist, Jan. 13.]

Much anxiety is felt for the safety of the disabled bark which was cast off by the steamer Politofsky about ten days ago, off the entrance to the Straits, during a severe gale. Captain Smith and his crew were on board the bark and it is hoped were able to keep the vessels off shore and head her for San Francisco. Capt. Smith's wife and children are in this city and naturally feel great anxiety to ascertain the fate of the bark.

A private letter received in town from Van Winkle, Cariboo, states that the writer met one of the prospectors on his way back from Omineca and asked him if he thought the new mines would prove a second Cariboo. "Man!" said the prospector excitedly, "there's a second California there aye, and an Australia piled on the top of it."

Coal oil has given out—that is, the supply. The small quantity in the market is held at $1 per gallon.

NOTHING can a few hundred dollars be so well invested as in the Puget Sound Homestead Association. It will insure each shareholder an interest in the great city to be built at the terminus of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Over One Hundred Shares are already taken. Persons desiring to become Stockholders will do well to call soon and enroll their names.

Home Questions for the Sickly and Debilitated.

Is it worth while to endure penal torture after every meal, when indigestion can be immediately relieved and permanently cured by so agreeable a remedy as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS?

Does it pay to be compelled by debility and languor to abandon active business when brain, nerve and muscle can be braced up and the whole system restored to a healthy condition, by a course of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS?

Why approach the dinner table daily with a positive disgust for all that is savory and delicious, when a vigorous appetite for even the plainest fare is created by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS?

Is it wise to live in this bright world as if it were a dungeon, gloomy, discontented and miserable when the worst case of hypochondria can be cured in a week by such a pleasant and wholesome exhilarant as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS?

Can it be possible that any person of bilious habit will run the risk of remittent fever or bilious colic, when he can now add regulate the great secretive organ with HOSTETTER'S BITTERS?

Is it not a species of moral insanity for any miner or planter in the interior, or any traveler or sojourner on the placers to be without the best known antidote to the effects of poisoned air and impure water, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS?

Considering the harassing and depressing nature of the functional derangements to which woman is subject, is it not astonishing that any invalid of the feebler sex should hesitate to seek the certain relief afforded in such cases, by the genial operation of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS?

These are questions of deeper interest than any of the political dogmas of the day, and those whom they concern are invited to give them something more than a passing thought.

The Sources of the Nile.

LIVINGSTONE'S GREAT DISCOVERIES—A SECRET SHORTLY TO PIERCE THE CURIOSITY OF FORTY GENTILES.

[From the New York World, Dec 27.]

The geographers of Christendom are felicitating themselves upon the discovery of the fountains of the old tiger, and upon the solution of the mystery which has for ages baffled inquiry and thwarted investigation. It is to be feared that these pæans are premature. To Livingstone all honor. He is among the first of adventurers and explorers, and his renown will be cherished to the latest ages. But he has not laid hand upon the urn from which the waters of the mysterious river emerge, nor plucked from old Father Nile the secret shrouded from the curiosity of forty centuries. The old river god holds it yet undiscovered and inviolate. Of course, we know approximately where its floods originate. So did Ptolemy, and that ancient geographer is at one with Livingstone. The latest explorer corroborates the earliest geographer, and puts to shame the purblind gazetteers of modern times, who have taught us to believe that the river took rise amid the snowy gorges of the Mountains of the Moon. Speke and Grant and Burton have exploded many of the topographical bubbles blown by the map makers, and each new explorer thought he had finally got at the heart of the matter. But lo! the venerable river, eluding their farthest search, still stretches away amid the wilderness and mountains of the untraversed continent, and its native fountains still sing their melodies unheard. Egypt is gone. She hath become the land of oblivion, and doteth. The line of her kings is dust. Mizraim cures wounds and Pharaoh is sold for balsams; Canopus is afar off and Memnon respondeth no longer to the sun. And the eighty nations to whom the mighty river rolled sustenance, and along whose thresholds it poured its psalm of plenty, and departed; and the colonnades are fallen which the builders dreamed would outlast the desert and the Dog-star; but the river, whose source was a mystery to Cheops and Rammesticus, is, in spite of Livingstone and Burton, a similar enigma to the Khedive and the Kings of Abyssinia, as well as to Sir Roderick Murchison and the rest of us.

Father Marquette thought he had an inkling of the sources of the Mississippi, when the two fountains of the river, which are those of the Missouri, were separated from him by the breadth of half a continent. It is quite likely that subsequent research may disclose that the chain of lakes which Dr. Livingstone identifies as the mother floods of the African River, have their tributaries—unknown, unmeasured, and mysterious—winding from the gorges of mountains laid down on no map and named by no geographer, and flowing through wildernesses which are now as untrodden as they were in the days of Strabo, and as they bid fair to be in the age of the geographer of the future. The fastnesses of that torrid continent are not easily stormed. After all the effort of travelers and explorers, we are told by astronomers to know less of its surface now than we do of that of the moon.

However, the interests of science are adequately subserved by the great discoveries which Livingstone has actually made. His contributions to the geographic knowledge of Africa are of the most valuable kind. If he has not stood at the edge of the snow line upon the slopes of the unknown mountains, and seen the sacred fountain in which old Nilus takes his rise breaking up through walls of cloven granite, and leaping forth crested with foam and glittering with equatorial light, as if its birth foretold the majesty of its career, he has at least made a nearer approach to the fountain head than any other traveler. Persons whose imaginative powers transcend their taste for exact inquiry, will be rather glad that there is one genuine mystery left to us. The glory of looking upon the source of the Nile, of cataloguing the reeds which border it, and classifying the sacred apes which cling to the branches of its overshadowing trees, would not counterbalance the shame of rending away the veil, more awful than that of Isis, which has hung before it since the singing together of the morning stars.

The Public Printing.

THE CONGRESSIONAL CRIME NUISANCE—EXPENSIVE SPECIAL WORKS—SENATOR SHANNERDIN PUBLISHES A CONGRESSIONAL TRAGIC.

[Washington Cor. of the Cincinnati Commercial.]

The Congressional Globe is a Congressional nuisance. It is the printed vanity of stupid men. If we had a board of able reporters, who would put to record, faithfully, the speeches and votes of these law-makers, so that the people might learn precisely what their servants are doing, it would have some value. But it is a dull, lodious file, by the side of which Bancroft's "United States" glows in interest. The Bofors claim and exercise the privilege of correcting, with dull afterthought, their impromptu stupidity; and so, at the expense of millions taken from the hard earnings of the people in the way of heavy taxation, an opaque after-dinner oration is perpetuated in the form which that law resolve and no one reads. Take, for instance, the so-called debate the other evening. Eight members of the House asked and obtained permission to print, without delivery, the tedious effort that some penny-a-liner had hired by the week. And a specific man would not give one continuous, brief editorial of the New York Sun, or a half column of the Commercial, for all the trash when done.

There is a lot of Bohemians here, who make a precarious living by writing these speeches for illiterate Congressmen. They write for any party and on either side. One told me, last winter, he made, one night, from his hand prepared a speech for an honorable member, and, in a few days after, was employed to answer his own argument by a gentleman in the opposition, and he did it with a flourish and success. And these fellows' brains are worth into type and published, at the expense of the people!

An amusing illustration of this sort of rascality is a matter of Globe record. A member of the House asked leave to print an unread speech, which was granted. A few days after, another honorable gentleman obtained the same privilege. When the two speeches appeared, they were one and the same. The drunken Bohemian had sold the same article to two different members.

"Never mind," said a member to one of the afflicted, "they can't be found in the Globe, and no one will ever know what an ass you have made of yourself!"

In the way of convincing proof, Gen. Garfield told me of an irritating instance. He had received a sharp reply from Chas. Vallandigham, formerly a prominent politician of Montgomery county, Ohio. (See Tinman's "Biographical Dictionary of Congress!") and Garfield responded in a sharp little speech that brought down that part of the House which sleeps in the gallerins. When the Globe appeared, some time after, Garfield was disgusted to find that Chas. had stricken out all that he (Chas.) had spit, and Garfield goes down to posterity recorded as making a fierce reply to nobody.

Mr. Stanton's Speech.

When Richmond surrendered, and the hearts of the people leaped with joy, a mass meeting at Washington was addressed by many prominent men, and among others by Mr. Stanton. His few carpet words, so eloquent, so expressive of the great honest heart that lay under his brusque manner, are full of solemn fervor, will be read with a deep interest to-day, when the warm heart has ceased to beat, and the giant brain has ceased to work, and the unconquerable will no longer sways the destiny of a nation. The great patriot, forgetting those who hate him, stands now before that Great Judge to whom, in those warm words, he rendered thanks for all that he had been able to do for his country:

Friends and fellow-citizens: In this great hour of triumph, my heart, as well as yours, is penetrated with gratitude to Almighty God for his deliverance of this nation. (Tremendous and prolonged cheering.) Our thanks are due to the President, (cheers) to the army and navy, (cheers) to the great commanders by sea and land, (cheers) to the gallant officers and men who have periled their lives upon the battle-field and drenched the soil with their blood. (Great cheers.) Hence forth our commiseration and our aid should be given to the wounded, the maimed and the suffering, who bear the marks of their great sacrifices in this mighty struggle. Let us humbly offer up our thanks to Divine Providence for his care over us, and beseech Him that He will guide and govern us in our duties hereafter as He has carried us forward to victory in the past; that He will teach us how to be humble in the midst of triumph, how to be just in the hour of victory, and that He will enable us to secure the foundations of this Republic, soaked as they have been in blood, so that it shall live forever and ever. (Enthusiastic cheers.) "Let us not forget the laboring millions in other lands who, in this struggle, have given us their sympathies, their aid, and their prayers, and let us bid them rejoice with us in our great triumph. Then, having done this, let us trust the future to God, who will guide us, as heretofore, according to His own good will." (Loud cheers.)

Henry Hoyt, the Sunday school publisher of Boston, offers respectively $600 and $300 for the two best sunday school books, to be wicning in style, free from denominational bias, and decidedly Evangelical in character and spirit, to contain 48,000 words, and to be sent in by March 15th.

Commissioner Wells has probably made his last annual report, as his office expires by statute limitation on the 30th of June next.

A Rare and Blessed Spectacle in California Twenty Years Ago.

In those days men would flock in crowds to catch a glimpse of that rare and blessed spectacle, a woman! Old inhabitants tell how, in a certain camp, the news went abroad early in the morning that a woman was come! They had sequ a calico dress hanging out of a wagon down at the camping ground—sign of emigrants from over the great plains. Everybody went down there, and a shout went up when an actual, bona fide dress was discovered fluttering in the wind! The male emigrant was visible. The miner said: "Hetch her out!" He said: "It is my wife, gentlemen—she is sick—we have been robbed of money, provisions, and everything, by the Indians—we want to rest." "Fetch her out! We've got to see her!" That was the only reply. He "fetched her out," and they swung their hats and set up three rousing cheers and a tiger; and they crowded around and gazed at her and touched her dress, and listened to her voice with the look of men who listened to a memory rather than a present reality; and then they collected $2,000 in gold and gave it to the man, and swung their hats again and gave three more cheers and went home satisfied. A year or two ago I dined in San Francisco with the family of a pioneer and talked to his daughter, a young lady whose first experience in San Francisco was an adventure, though she herself did not remember it, as she was only two or three years old at the time. Her father said that, after landing from the ship, they were walking up the street, a servant leading the party, with the little girl in her arms. And presently a huge miner, bearded, bolted, spurred and bristling with deadly weapons—just down from a long mining campaign in the mountains, evidently barred the way, stopped the servant, and stood gazing, with a face all alive with gratification and astonishment. Then he said, reverently: "Well, if it ain't a child!" And then he snatched a little leather sack out of his pocket and said to the servant: "There's a hundred and fifty dollars in dust there, and I'll give it to you to let me kiss the child!" That anecdote is true, but see how things change. Sitting at that dinner table, listening to that anecdote, if I had offered double the money for the privilege of kissing the same child I would have been refused. Seventeen added years had far more than doubled the price.—Correspondent Buffalo Express.

Reunion of the Sherman Brigade.

MANSFIELD, Ohio, Dec. 31.—About 150 to 200 persons are present at the re-union of the Sherman Brigade, which convenes at Miller's Hall at 10 o'clock this afternoon. Maj. Gen. T. J. Wood has written at the last moment that he cannot be present. The Hon. John Sherman is present and will preside. The hall is tastefully decorated with flags, evergreens and pictures, and the speakers' stand contains many portraits of distinguished men, the tattered flags of the brigade, and numerous relics of the battle field; also, an oblong framework, bordered with evergreens, containing words of welcome to the heroes in which the regiments were engaged. The weather is fine, and the first annual reunion of the Sherman Brigade is an assured success.

The first reunion of the Sherman Brigade took place in this city to-day. This organization consists of the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Ohio volunteer infantry, the Sixth battery, and McLaughlin's squadron of cavalry. The meeting was attended by a large number of the surviving members. The reception addresses were made in Miller's Hall. Hon. John Sherman, under whose auspices the command was originally formed, presided over the meeting, and made the welcoming address. The hall was beautifully decorated, and was crowded with the soldiers and their friends. Remarks were made by Judge J. Brinkerhoff, Lieut. Chauncey Woodruff, Maj. W. F. Bierpen, Col. J. J. Williams and Gen. R. Brinkerhoff. In the evening, a bounteous table was spread in Young's Hall, and the gallant survivors of the old brigade did ample justice to the good things provided. Regular and volunteer toasts were read and responded to by Gen. R. Brinkerhoff, Hon. John Sherman, Capt. R. S. Chamberlain, Capt. W. F. Hinman, Capt. L. D. Myers, Wm. Gardner, Stewart Miller, Chauncey Woodruff, Dr. Sarathers, Capt. C. O. Tannyhill, Capt. Forbes, Col. Isaac Gass, and Major W. W. Smith. At the close a permanent organization of the brigade was effected, with the following officers: President, Col. S. M. Wolff, Captain C. O. Tannyhill; Lieutenant, J. P. McElroy and Captain, Joseph S. Skeggs; Secretaries, L. B. Myers and W. F. Hinman. The next reunion will be held on Mount Vernon, on Nov. 30, 1870, the anniversary of the battle of Perryville.

The Jews at St. Petersburg have obtained permission to build a synagogue, the first in the Empire.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

PORTLAND, Jan. 16, 1870.

Latest New York gold quotations 121¼.

Legal tender rates in San Francisco 82½.

Portland Legal Tender rates, 81¾@82.

Transactions in our local market to-day are limited and prices nominal. The receipts of produce are fast filling our warehouses, and still rates are firm for most articles. Two thousand sacks of oats flour, 125 boxes apples and 100 sacks oats were received from the valley, besides a number of other articles of produce in various amounts. The Ajax has received nearly three hundred tons of freight, mostly flour. The bark Live Yankee will also carry away a fair quantity of assorted produce next week. These are the only vessels now in port, and both will probably sail before further arrivals. Four sailing vessels, two destined for San Francisco, one for Honolulu and one for Tillamook, are now lying at Astoria waiting to go to sea.

Retailers have done a fair share of local business to-day, and grocers have received some considerable additions to their stocks of Oregon produce.

The Wallamet is again rising rapidly and boats are running further up the river and return with full freights.

HIRAM SMITH'S Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATION, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently attested during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE or REFUNDS THE MONEY. If, can do this in any case, and a trial of it is therefore without risk. If cure is not effected, the patient is not affected. Price, $5.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:

E. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. REWARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M. HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROBERT RAMEY,

And others in that vicinity.

Persons afflicted with the distressing malady of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.
